I've been debating whether or not to post this, but I feel I must. This man raped me 7 years ago. The St. Louis Park police didn't take me seriously then, but I hope they will see now that he is a predator. As I type these words, my hands are shaking, my breath is short, and I have a deep, pulsing ball in the pit of my stomach. This is the physical manifestation of the PTSD I have as a result of him violating my body and robbing me of my dignity. I resent the fact that the police let my case drop. It would have spared his future victims from the heartache and trauma they are most certainly enduring now.
